Agenda:

- Welcome!
- Approval of previous minutes
- Principal's Report (Mr. Kennedy)
  - Thank you to Jason Walker and his team for putting together the ice rink at Norman Ingram
  - Thank you to NI Staff for all the pivoting that they are doing from in person to online!
  - Thank you to parent council for the 4 Square games
  - Thank you to the parents in the community for all their support with virtual school, in school, and parking challenges
  - Since we have been back at school to school, we range in absences from 33 to 12 - Not something to be concerned
  - Play Day - Mary and Kim will discuss later in the meeting
  - Report cards will be going home on Feb 15 and parents can request interviews (phone or virtually). Please make arrangements with your child's teacher
- Play Day
  - Tues February 8th for the grade 1-5
  - Will be run in the morning
  - They kids will stay in cohorts
  - They will be outside for about 45 minutes plus their recess
  - Hot Chocolate will be served in their classroom (same routine will be followed as their lunch time routine)
  - Will need around $40 for hot chocolate and cups

- Snow sculpting, treasure hunting, ice spoon relay
- Family Day (Monday Feb 21)
  - Magic Show - when you sign up and click on the link, Norman Ingram would get a kick back ($10 back to Norman Ingram for all the ticket sales and there is also a promo code to get 10% off). There are two shows, one in the morning and one in the afternoon
  - Pizza - Families can also order pizza with a specific phone number and code any time on that day and a portion of the proceeds will also go to NI parent council
- Staff Appreciation Day
  - Lunch for the teachers on Monday Feb 14
  - Lunch from Baretto Cafe (croissants or panini)
  - Within the $12 budget range
- Treasurer's Report (Jenny)
  - Have a $12,000 balance in the Parent Council Account
  - Parent Council Insurance right now is 1,500 - we are going to look into it to see if we need this type of insurance if we are not doing events. Mike and Jenny will look into this and report back
  - $4000 remains in the Norman Ingram School Account that is allotted for parent council
- Next Meeting
  - Wednesday March 30th at 7:00 on Zoom
